When the hilarious guests, some of them frankly bolsterous, began to re-assemble into their original groupings and say their good nights, Joanna's gorgeous gown was crushed, her shimmering hair fluffed, and her face sparkling. The night had been like wine to her, and she was vital with the stimulus of it. Dorminster wanted to linger at his parting, but she mocked at him. When she saw that his face clouded she was prettily penitent and gave him her hand to kiss. To Kenneth she was more serious. She looked up at him rather shyly.

"You know," he said, "I am taking a very marvelous memory with me!"

"Be good to it," was all the comfort she would give him.

Yvonne was confessedly weary. "I always shudder at the sight of the debris after a night like this," she informed Joanna when the last guest had gone merrily on his way. "Shall we go up stairs to my room. We can talk it all over, for a while. A party must be talked about before one goes to bed, you know."

They talked until the sun broke into

CARRIED WIFE TO BED

Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minesing, Ontario. — "I am a practical nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three months I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to drink a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed, I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering as I did who got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so he went and got it for me. When I had taken three bottles I was just like a new woman and I have had splendid health ever since. When I feel any bearing-down pains I always take it; sometimes a half bottle or whatever I need. It is my only medicine and I have told many a one about it. Any one wanting to know more about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I will gladly write to her. I do all I can to recommend it for I feel I owe my life and strength to it." — Mrs. NEAL BOWSER, R. R. 1, Minesing, Ontario.

Do you feel broken-down, nervous, and weak sometimes? Do you have this horrid feeling of fear which sometimes comes to women when they are not well? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently will relieve this condition.

Italian Women Are Barred From Office

Not Eligible for Municipal Positions in New Ruling

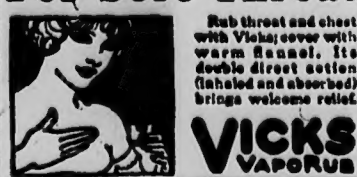

By a decision made in the Ministry of Internal Affairs, Italian women have been definitely cut off from all participation in the political life of the nation.

It now rules, in fact, that women are not eligible for the post of Podesta. The Podestas are the Italian equivalent of Mayors, except that they are appointed by the National Government instead of being elected by popular suffrage.

The women's suffrage movement has undergone strange vicissitudes under Mussolini's Government in Italy. First he granted the women the right to vote in municipal elections which was generally interpreted as the first step toward granting them suffrage in political elections. No sooner had this law been enacted than the adoption of the system, by Podesta, suppressing municipal elections, deprived the women of their newly acquired right to vote.

The recent ruling by the Ministry of Internal Affairs rob them also of the right of becoming heads of municipalities which they had won when they were granted the municipal suffrage.

Joanna gave him more directions through her speaking tube. He stopped just beyond a corner and opened the cabriolet door.

"It is the fourth house from here on this side," Joanna explained. "You will recognize it by the sign at the side of the door. It reads 'John Wilmore, architect.' There'll be an old woman with a rag tied around her head come to the door—if any of the children answer you tell them to get the old woman, she's the landlady. She's all right, if she doesn't think you're an officer come to take her in for having a flower pot or something on the fire escape. If she does she'll slam the door in your face, so you'd better stick this bill in her hands as soon as she sees you. Then she'll tell you if Mr. Wilmore is in. If he is give her another bill and tell her to keep her mouth shut about the inquiry. If he isn't tell her that I'm coming in to talk to her."

CHAPTER XIX.

A Visit to John's Quarters

From her silken cushions in the cabriolet Joanna waited impatiently until her chauffeur, after a brief parley at the door of the house to which she had sent him, returned. The man said: "The woman came. She says Mr. Wilmore is not at home."

"Then you may wait for me here." A half score of greet urchins already had gathered about the smartly shining cabriolet, its dull gray shades carried from its dainty fittings to the satin sheen of its expensive hood. Such an imposing car seldom invaded that neighborhood and its placid company of ghosts of the days when the streets of home and not mere sleeping quarters.

The slim, elegant figure that few patrons of a silk counter would have recognized, smiled at the urchins, pushed through them, and entered, dazzling into the depths of the house where John had found for himself a tiny sleeping room and another, a larger one, with the precious north light, which he could turn into his workroom.

During the days John served at his apprenticeship with the firm of architects who provided him his necessary training. His talents were recognized. A bright future was predicted for him. But, so far, John's returns had been indeed meager—as is the usual condition of the student of a difficult profession. If, at times, Foreman, Van Brent & Craig were dubious of their young John Wilmore, it was because he was inclined to be a dreamer. That is, they, his tutors and employers, were of the mind that was much too eager to skip such fundamentals as the proper angle of a drain pipe and contemplate monumental harmonies.

Perhaps John would have agreed with the wiser heads that guided him through his student possibilities. Perhaps that was why he confined his dreaming, as far as possible, to his one large room, and worked there, over his drawing board, with his blue prints and tracers—by the north light in the early mornings, and the incandescent light through the evening

that had not been Joanna's.

The "old woman" who faced the girl with the swagger stick inside the drab hallway, might have been, were she not so frankly frowzy, a replica of Mrs. Adams. She once had been on the stage. The flood gates of her wondrous memories were ever at the point of lifting. Between her and "John's girl" barriers had broken down forever when Joanna, who on more than one occasion sat through an evening with John in his workroom, trying as best she could to fathom the things he talked about, made her come in and recount the triumphs of old with its curtain calls and its jealousies and marvelous romances. Joanna admitted to John, at that time, that she would much rather hear his landlady's monologue than listen to him rave about gargoyles and such musty things.

The landlady was convincingly dramatic when she identified "John's girl" in the radiant vision which smiled so sweetly at her. There was, even, thrilling drama in her elaborate service to the code that "asks no questions and gets no snubbing." She measured Joanna from smart little hat to smart, sapphire-buttoned sueded, and reached her own conclusions over the swagger stick, but she said, only:

"Of course you can, Miss. You can go right in. Mr. John's been gone since breakfast. He isn't been doing much work of late, it seems, because he's seemed kind of restless like."

For some mysterious reason the landlady's gaze rested on the sapphire slipper buckles, as if the depths of them contained the explanation of her lodger's sudden idleness.

Little Helps For This Week

He that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love.—John iv. 8.

Yet while I love, say God the most, I deem

That I can never love you over-much:

I love Him more, so let me love you too;

Yea, as I apprehend it, love is such

I cannot love you if I love not Him.

I cannot love Him if I love not you.

—Christina G. Rossetti.

Love to the Lord cannot possibly exist apart from neighborly love. For the Lord's love is love to the whole human race, which He desires to save eternally, and to adjoin entirely to Himself, so as for none of them to perish. Wherefore, whosoever has love to the Lord has the Lord's love, and cannot help loving his neighbor.

—Emanuel Swedenborg.

An Oil that is Famous. — Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is far afield enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

Have you heard about Peps? Peps is a scientific preparation put up in pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.

Peps contains certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

While no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and healing commences.

Throat Trouble

Toronto, Ont. — "For about eight years I was subject to laryngitis, my throat would get very sore and I would lose my voice. I would have a spell of this kind a couple of times a year, especially in the winter when the weather was cold and disagreeable. It would be a couple of months each time before I would fully recover from these spells and get my voice back. I desisted and took medicine with little relief until I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it has so completely relieved me of this trouble that I scarcely ever have a sore throat or suffer in any way from my former trouble." — Mrs. A. McDonald, 28 McMurrich St.

Golden Medical Discovery is put up in Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., and sold by all druggists in both tablets and liquid. Send Dr. Pierce 10c if you wish a trial pkg.

Local and General.

The announcement is made of the marriage of Eric Leadbetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leadbetter of Didsbury, to Miss Edith M. Currier at Alameda, San Francisco, on Saturday. Geo. Liesemer, A. G. Studer and Bert Fisher returned Wednesday evening from a shooting trip in the country west of Didsbury. The camp taken up by them was in close proximity to that occupied by various bands of Indians, and the country apparently for some distance around had been thoroughly gone over, the result being that they found it exceedingly difficult to approach game of any kind. On the whole, however, they report fair success and a good time.

The Harvest Thanksgiving service at St. Cyprian's church on Sunday afternoon last was well attended, the pews being filled to capacity. Rev. Mr. Clay of Olds officiated. The Ladies' Aid of St. Cyprian's on the preceding day had very tastefully and effectively decorated the church thus adding considerably to the significance of the service itself.

The film showing the Tunney-Dempsey full ten-round championship bout will be produced at the Opera House here on Saturday, November 20th. Three shows will be given at 3.30 p.m., and at 9.00 and 11.00 p.m.

Miss Dorothy Orde, who spent Thanksgiving at home, returned to her school at Coalhurst on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Mann, of Sylvan Lake, and G. R. Hoadley of Edmonton were visiting with A. Orde over the week-end.

Four Chevrolet trucks have been purchased during the last few days by Messrs. McCoy and McCann from the Adshad Garage.

Ed. Ford, who has for some time been working at Nanton, returned to Didsbury on Tuesday.

A rare treat is in store for many at the Didsbury Opera House on Saturday, November 13th, when "The keeper of the bees" will be shown. Those who have read the story by Jean Stratton Porter will realize this is something beyond the ordinary and should not miss it. On Wednesday, November 17th, "The Dixie Merchant" will be shown.

Miss L. R. Kennedy of Calgary spent the week-end with friends in town.

Miss Winnifred Studer was home here over the holiday.

Miss Duncan wishes to announce she is ready to take in sewing again.

Elmer Evans, who has been attending Normal at Calgary, spent Thanksgiving with his parents.

Walter N. Simon of Salem, Oregon, is a visitor here for a short time looking after his interests in the district.

Mrs. Staples of Kananaskas, and Mrs. Becker, principal of the Exshaw school, motored down last week and were the guests of Mrs. W. Leadbetter over the week-end.

Approval of the board of utility commissioners was announced on Saturday of the franchise obtained by the Calgary Power company to furnish the town of Blackie with electric light and power. Work on the line will be commenced at once, an extension being built on the line from Calgary to High River. It is hoped to have electric light in Blackie before the end of the year.

Seldom does the Opera House witness such a large attendance as that which assembled on Wednesday night to watch the various reels unfolding the "Life and Career of Martin Luther." The pictures were clean and beautifully portrayed and the interest of the audience was very keen throughout. Rev. Nisson of Westcott, in a short address, explained the significance of the picture.

Sid Watt returned from Vancouver on Tuesday morning, and reports his father having passed through the operation quite successfully, and considering his advanced age good progress towards recovery was being maintained.

C. R. Liesemer is having an auction sale on Thursday, November 18th, and on account of ill-health will afterwards return to Ontario.

ARE YOU TOO SERIOUS?

Best Save Worry for Really Essential Things

There is such a thing as being too serious.

Robert Louis Stevenson wrote: "We are in such haste to be doing, to be writing, to be gathering gear, to make our voice audible a moment in the desirous silence of eternity, that we forget the one thing of which these are but parts—namely, to live."

Too much effort in the business of getting on or getting up or getting cultured or getting anything else indicates a certain lack of faith. If we were surer of success our technique would be better.

Upon the heights there is always sunshine. Jesus was never in a hurry. He carried the atmosphere of the eternal years. We find Socrates poking fun as his death approaches. In the stress of his great task Abraham Lincoln loved a funny story. The humor of Beethoven has been noted. And we know the playfulness of Wagner in "Die Meistersinger."

Worry is not of the temper of greatness. The masters do not eat their souls, but have so clear a consciousness of their powers that it gives them an admirable poise.

Possibly some such meaning lurks in Lord Chesterfield's remark: "A gentleman is never in a hurry." And perhaps the scriptural saying has here a bearing: "He that believeth shall not make haste."

The art of life is to recognize the essentials and to devote one's serious self to them. As for the other things, let them pass.

Most things do not matter. And there are a vast number of issues that can be best settled by laughter.

RED ROSE "is good COFFEE"

World Benefactors

In one of his famous satires, Dean Swift makes the king of Brobdingnag give utterance to the opinion that whoever could make two ears of corn or two blades of grass to grow upon a spot of ground where only one grew before, would deserve better of mankind and do more essential service to his country than the whole race of politicians put together.

Certain it is that while many politicians have done an immense amount of good in this world, many others have done incalculable harm, but the experimenters and scientists who have carried out the dictum of Dean Swift's imaginary king have conferred nothing but good upon mankind.

In April last the death occurred of Luther Burbank, of California, popularly known as the plant wizard, at the ripe old age of 77 years. Mr. Burbank devoted his life to the breeding of plants, and the results of his remarkable experiments in the development of flowers, fruits and plants of all kinds are too well known to require more telling. He gave added size and beauty to flowers and developed many new types; he increased the size and flavor of many fruits; he increased the productive power of many plants and trees many times over. He thus added not only to the beauty of the world, but to the fruit grower, the wealth of the world, and the health of people generally.

Canada, too, has its plant wizard in the person of Dr. Saunders, the creator of Marquis wheat. About twenty-five years ago Dr. Saunders, after long and painstaking experiments, succeeded in crossing a kernel of wheat from the shores of the Baltic with another kernel of wheat from the foothills of the Himalayas and thereby created a new type which produced a larger yield per acre, made a whiter flour, and ripened in less time and thus avoided damage from frost. This new wheat was named Marquis, and from the one kernel of only about twenty-five years ago, there is now harvested around four hundred million bushels annually. Dr. Saunders' work has meant hundreds of millions of dollars to Canada within the life of the present generation.

Western Canada can also boast of its experimenters through whose efforts several blades of grass, or wheat, have been made to grow where only one grew before. The name of Seager Wheeler is a household word in the farm homes of this country. He has shown how the finest wheat in the world, the wheat which year after year captured the world's first prize, can be grown. He has demonstrated the methods to be followed, and has proven how profitable good farming and proper cultivation and seed selection is as compared with careless and indifferent cultivation, the use of poor seed and poor farming in general. Seager Wheeler is now engaged in demonstrating that apples, pears, plums and other fruits can be successfully grown on the prairies of Western Canada.

Politicians have a work of importance to do for the country, and in the doing of it honestly, faithfully, and well they are deserving of all honor and loyal support, but men like Burbank, Saunders, Wheeler, and others whose names are not so well known but who are quietly raising the standard of production, are likewise deserving of all the honor their fellow citizens can bestow upon them. They are doing a work for mankind which neither politicians, nor any other group of men can do, and their works will live after them.

The world heaps honors and riches on the successful politician, manufacturer, financier, and business man. Too frequently, though, the quiet man at work in his garden, field or laboratory, working out through years of study and experimentation difficult problems whose solution blesses all mankind, remains unrecognized and without reward. It is gratifying, therefore, to learn that a body has been created with strong financial backing to carry on the work to which Luther Burbank devoted the best years of his life; that the Dominion Government has recognized Dr. Saunders' invaluable research work by granting him an annuity of some thousands of dollars for life; that leaders in all walks and professions in life have united in doing honor to Seager Wheeler.

Over and above the material achievements of these really great men, and the direct benefits they have conferred on the world, there is the example of such lives and the incentive they give to others to strive mightily for greater, better things. The individual farmer who is earnestly striving to make his farm a model for the community in which he lives, who wages unceasing warfare on weeds, who gives close attention to the cultivation of his soil, insists on good, clean seed, who eliminates scrubs from his herds and houses his cattle in clean and sanitary buildings, or the farm wife who takes a pride in her poultry, in the quality of the milk and cream sent to the creamery, or the butter she herself may make, are likewise doing essential service to their country and are deserving of the thanks of their fellow citizens.

The 600 songs of Schubert were written—sometimes ten in a day—in the fourteen years between the time he was 17 and his tragic death at 31.

Globe-Trotter: "Of course, you went up the Nile?"
Bluffer: "By Jove, yes! What a view there was from the summit!"

After arguing with a man for half an hour a woman invariably says: "Now, why can't you be sensible?"

People are a good deal happier because of a lot of things they don't know.

Wonder Of Modern Surgery

Blood Transfusion Possible Without Attendance of Giver

London doctors have discovered that transfusion of blood can be made without the attendance of the giver of the blood alongside the patient receiving it. A pint and a half of blood taken from a person in Paddington was raced through London, to a patient at Richmond in Surrey and successfully transfused.

This wonder of modern surgery was done with the aid of a motor car and a new medical invention enabling the blood to be kept in perfect condition and at the necessary temperature during the journey.

Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which positively does drive away the attacks.

Greyhounds are supposed to be the oldest breed of dogs in the world. They have been traced back for thousands of years. Their figures are found on Egyptian frescoes, and history relates that they were used for coursing by Xenophon.

Worms, by the irritation that they cause in the stomach and intestines, deprive infants of the nourishment that they should derive from food, and malnutrition is the result. Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms and correct the morbid conditions in the stomach and bowels that are favorable to worms, so that the full nutriment of the child is assured and development in every way encouraged.

There was a slight difference of opinion. He acknowledged his mistake quite generously by saying: "You are right, and I am wrong, as you generally are."

"So nice of you to put it like that," she said, sweetly. But then she began to think about it.

CONFERENCE IS LIKELY TO LAST UNTIL NOV. 24

London.—Another three weeks in all probability lies ahead of the Imperial conference.

Efforts are being made to speed up work and adjournment of the conference by November 15 is suggested. But in view of the constitutional issues raised by Premier Hertzog there are voluminous details still to be dealt with by committee before it is decided if the conference can be completed in work before November 21.

Premier King is making arrangements to be back in Ottawa for the opening of Parliament in December. He expects to spend a few days in France before sailing for Canada.

The Government is expected to issue State invitations to the Premier of the Dominion of Wales to visit Dublin before returning home. But unless the conference concludes by November 15 it is very doubtful if Premier King will be able to accept.

Premier Mackenzie King is understood, does not propose to outline in his statement any additional defence plans on the part of Canada. Following the example of the British ministers he proposes to survey what is being done at the present time, but considers that any additional defence proposals are for the Canadian Government to make in the Canadian Parliament.

Although there has been no official statement on the subject of defence as far as Canada is concerned, it is considered that any developments by the Dominion along this line would be in the encouragement of aviation. Premier King already has given an indication of this in promising full co-operation in the development of civilian air routes.

Recommends Lease

Of Grain Elevator

Vancouver Harbor Board Supports Request of Alberta Wheat Pool.

Vancouver.—The board of harbor commissioners has notified the Alberta Wheat Pool that the board was prepared to recommend to the Dominion Government a lease of number 1 terminal grain elevator here to the pool. Lieut.-Col. G. H. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the board, in making the announcement, said the recommendation contained the proviso that the lease be negotiated on a yearly basis, commencing August 1, each year and the commissioner retain the right to recede use of the elevator at any time by giving notice of intention not later than the previous December 31.

All details as to rental and matters involved remain to be worked out on a mutually satisfactory basis, Col. Kirkpatrick said.

Grain Loadings Show

Remarkable Increase

Amount Marketed at Greater Than Last Year.

Winnipeg.—With the bumper harvest of the West pouring into the Atlantic over the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, the amount of grain loaded for export is showing a remarkable increase over the corresponding period of last year. During the first ten months of the current year, 98,102,648 bushels were marketed and 59,472 cars loaded.

The idea of the magnitude of the bumper grain movement may be gained from the fact that if the cars loaded during the month were placed end to end they would extend over a distance of approximately 250 miles; while the engines required for the handling of the cars would cover 14 miles of track.

Translated into terms of bread, the bumper grain movement would amount to 10,141,126 barrels of flour and would bake 1,014,112,260 standard two-pound loaves of bread.

Settlers From U.S.

Publicity Work, It Is Claimed, Would Bring Large Numbers Here

Winnipeg.—The mid-western states are among the most fertile sources for prospective settlers for Western Canada, in the opinion of Colin H. Groff, publicity director of the Dominion of Alberta. He has just completed a tour, around the northern exhibition circuit.

Nebraska, Iowa and other mid-western states, he said, had a large quota of farmers who are anxious to move to Canada where they were being attracted by cheap lands, low taxes and high productivity. Mr. Groff intimated that a number of prospective settlers would visit Alberta and other points on the prairies next spring to ascertain the possibilities of farming in Canada as compared with the United States.

According to Mr. Groff there is still a great deal of misunderstanding about Canada among the United States farmers. Before there is any extensive influx from the south, these harmful impressions must be removed, he said.

Proceeding With

Disarmament Study

Military and Naval Commission Said to Have Overcome Difficulties

Geneva.—Disarmament studies in the military and naval commission are said to be proceeding with less difficulty after the program was changed to permit submission of the feelings of all delegates to the preparatory commission which will make final decisions on technical matters. The plan had previously called for submission to the preparatory commission of the bare vote of the committees. Discussion in committees has lately been confined to a strictly technical basis with excellent results.

Germany Paying Up

Total Reparations Up To June 20 About $750,000,000

London.—Mr. Guinness, financial secretary to the treasury, told the House of Commons a few days ago that the total payments by Germany in cash or kind, distributed by the Reparations Commission between the Allied Powers on account of reparation, up to June 20 was approximately $750,000,000. The allocation to the British Empire was $125,000,000, of which the share of the United Kingdom was approximately $110,000,000.

A Divisional Point

The assembled aldermen concurred with the suggestion at council last night.

Entertained By Royalty

Small Boy, Hans, Enforced Ride, On Special Train, of Queen Marie

Spokane.—A small boy looked at a queen and was carried away from his home for it. Lester Brown, aged ten, was found aboard Queen Marie's special train a few minutes after it had left Sand Point, Idaho. He was in tears. He had slipped aboard the train as it slowed down for Sand Point and had been unable to hop off as it passed the station because of the press of the crowd.

Queenly arms comforted him and the Royal candy was brought into play. He was the Queen's guest until Spokane was reached. Marie, herself, telegraphed the boy's parents. After playing bean tag with Prince Nicholas and Princess Helena, Lester dined with the Royal family.

London.—Sir Wilson Mappin, Baronet, of Sheffield, after making certain provisions for Lady Mappin, his daughter and other members of his family, left the residue of the estate to the Imperial War Fund for the purposes of the National Debt incurred for the purposes of the recent war. His gross estate was about two and a quarter million dollars.

Nine Million Pounds Of Twine

Co-Operative Supply Department of U.G.G. Transacts Large Volume of Business

Nearly nine million pounds of binder twine were handled by United Grain Growers for the harvesting of the 1926 crop. This makes a total of over forty million pounds of twine handled by the company during the past five years, and of over eighty-five million pounds of twine since the company first went into the twine business. Before 1914, when the company, the Grain Growers' Grain Company first undertook the distribution of binder twine it was impossible for a farmer's organization to buy twine at wholesale prices, and the company in spite of its large purchasing power, had a good deal of difficulty in making purchases at first. For a time it was necessary to import twine made in Ireland. Before that time twine was handled only through certain well defined retail channels, and the retail profits allowed added from two to four cents a pound to the cost of twine. Now, thanks to the work done by the farmer's company, a large part of the twine used is distributed through farmer organizations, at U.G.G. elevators and by local associations. The total savings to farmers that have resulted are not easy to calculate, but probably two million dollars less has been paid by farmers for U.G.G. twine than they would have had to pay under conditions formerly prevailing, and still prevailing to a certain extent in parts of the country where there is no competition from farmer organizations in the handling of twine. But that is only a part of the saving to farmers, because this competition has brought about a lower scale of prices on twine all over the country, resulting in savings of many millions.

More than two million dollars' worth of farm supplies are handled each year by United Grain Growers. Besides binder twine one of the largest items is flour and feed, of which last year 5,680 tons were sold, nearly all at elevators equipped with flour sheds. The value of this was $308,423, and during the past five years flour and feed to the value of over $1,550,000 have been distributed. The coal business of the company amounts to over half a million dollars each year, more than two thousand carloads being handled. While most of this goes through elevator coal sheds, a good deal is sold through local associations, which before the company entered the field were unable to buy coal at wholesale prices.

TO SUPPRESS ALL OPPOSITION TO FASCISM IN ITALY

Rome.—Fascist Italy, always stirred to delirious enthusiasm by the utterances of its leader, Benito Mussolini, is now seeking with deadly determination to suppress all opposition to Fascism.

Violent demonstrations throughout Italy against anti-Fascists have led to the death and injury of many persons. Greater bloodshed was prevented only by the heroic efforts of heavily reinforced patrols of carabinieri and militiamen, not a few of whom were bruised and beaten while fighting back infuriated mobs, which attempted to wreck offices of opposition newspapers and the homes of known opponents of Fascism.

Rioting was checked in a measure through the personal intervention of Dr. Benelli, vice-secretary general of the Fascist party. At Cagliari, Sardinia, Fascist manifestants, after invading the offices of two newspapers, marched to the home of the anti-Fascist deputy, Lussu, in front of which they staged a hostile demonstration, being prevented from smashing in the doors by carabinieri. One of the Fascists named Porra climbed the side of the house and was straddling the balcony when Lussu shot and killed him.

Screaming, "Lynch him," the mob again tried to break through the carabinieri who kept back the enraged Fascists and arrested Lussu.

At Naples the homes of the philosopher, Croce, the dramatist, Robert Braccio, the politician, Labriola, and a number of other opponents were wrecked. Similar incidents occurred at Venice and elsewhere.

Cattle Shipments To Britain

Considerable Falling Off of Shipments From Canada Is Reported

Montreal.—Of 14 cattle sailings from Canada to the United Kingdom during the present month, ten are scheduled to commence in Montreal. This number is slightly in excess of the monthly average for the present season, but is three below the monthly average for the same six months of last year.

Shipments of cattle from Canada this year have been nearly 100 per cent below those for last season over the same period, and none of the monthly totals sent overseas has been within 1,500 head of the corresponding totals for last year, and in most cases have been 3,000 head less.

H. E. Roppel, pastor

On Friday evening of this week November 12th, the people of Didsbury and community are to be favored with an illustrated lecture on "Bible Romance in Darkest Africa," under auspices of the British and Foreign Bible Society. Rev. A. W. Marr of Calgary, in Company with Rev. A. W. Banfield, returned missionary from Africa will be in attendance to address a union meeting in the Evangelical church. It is hoped that the members and friends of the churches will avail themselves of this occasion. A union orchestra will assist in the musical part of the service.

The Harvest Home and Thanksgiving services last Sunday were especially marked by an unusually fine Thanksgiving spirit. The splendid free-will offering was one of the proofs of that. We prefer not to announce the figures in dollars and cents just at this time. Suffice it to say that the Canada Conference expects the Didsbury circuit to raise $300.00 this year for home missions. This Thanksgiving offering now along with some previous gifts in small amounts has swelled the total well nigh the above figure. Other prospective gifts will more than make up the present shortage before the end of the Conference year.

The Ladies Aid Annual sale will be held in the Didsbury Opera House on Friday afternoon November 19th, beginning at 2 o'clock. Home cooking candy and a large variety of fancy work will be on sale. Embroidered pillow cases will be a specialty.

Misses Laura Liesemer, Grace Brubaker and Lois Clemens were home from school in Calgary over Thanksgiving.

Born in Didsbury hospital on Sunday, October 31, to Dr. and Mrs. Liesemer a son. Congratulations.

KNOX AND WESTCOTT UNITED CHURCH

"Retreating from life" is the theme chosen for Sunday November 14th.

Have you realized that a human life may often fail through mistakes that we have never yet called sins? A mistake in judgment, whereby a man takes a wrong turn in life, may condemn him for years to unhappiness and ineffectiveness. A mood of mind that was not felt to be wrong may grow upon a man till it becomes a sort of disease spoiling his days. We used to be told that if we were good we were sure to be happy. But if that is true, the goodness implied must include a good deal of wisdom and sound judgment. For living a human life is really a high art, and the commonplaces about right and wrong are not sufficient guide. We need to sit at the feet of the great masters of life and learn from them in a great many ways.

The sermon deals with one of the common problems of life and what Jesus said about it. The problem is how to meet rightly the challenge of life.
